

Bloomington High School North Band Code of Ethics

- 1) Participating in band activities is a privilege.
- 2) All school rules must be followed and any infractions will be handled by the band directors, student's parents, and the BHSN administration.
- 3) The rules apply to all students regardless of grade level or age.
- 4) Curfews must be adhered to.
- 5) Directors, students, and chaperones should treat each other with respect at all times.
- 6) During overnight trips, hotel room doors will remain in a fully-opened position if there is mixed company within a room.

As a representative of my band, I understand that how I act reflects on all of the other students and on my directors.

I also understand that participating in band activities is a privilege, and that in order to participate in any band activity except for regularly scheduled classes, I and my parent or guardian must sign a copy of this Code of Ethics.

I, _____, affirm that I have read the information contained in this Code of Ethics and agree to abide by them in their entirety.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

I am the parent or guardian of _____. I certify that I have read this Code of Ethics, signed by _____, and I understand that if he/she violates a rule set forth in the Code of Ethics, he/she will be prohibited from participating in any other band trips during that school year. I also understand that he/she may be sent home at my expense, and I agree to be responsible for the cost of my student's immediate return home.

Signature: _____ Date: _____